DECLASSIFIED
Authority NND 735017

The 36th Division Archive

COMPANY "E"

ONE HUNDRED FORTY FIRST INFANTRY REGIMENT, RIFLE
A.P.O. #36 U.S.Army.

24 March, 1944.

SUBJECT: ACTIVITES OF CO "E" IN THE MONTH OF FEBRUARY 1944.

TO: Commandin Officer 2nd Bn. 141st Inf, Regiment.

After the Rapido Crossing of Jan, 21-22 1944 the company took up defensive position in the vicinity of La Piedra. While in these position Co. E and Co.G. functioned as one Company, having a joint C.P. Our activites while in these position, consisted of routine patrols to contact adjacent units and to -- contact our outposts, Enemy fire on our position was light; purely intradictory. We remained in these positions until the night of Feb. 6, 1944. On the evening of Feb 6, 1944 the Company marched to a rest area in the vicinity of San Vittore. At 22.00 on Feb 8 the Company moved by foot to an assembly area near Cairo arriving at 0600 on Feb 9. On the evening of the 9th, the batallion moved up on Hill 706 relieving the 135th Inf. Co "E" was in batallion reserve and occupied defensive position on the reverse slope of Hill 706 until relieved. While in the area, we were subjected to artillery barrages suffering light casualties. Our activites were cheifly patroling. Patrols were sent out to scour the woods following a small German infiltration. Our machine Gun Section was attached to Co.G. and occupied positions on outposts at night. One rifle squad was attached to Co F. to bolster their defensee. The Company received replacements during the week of Feb 20-26. We were relieved at 0115 Feb 27 by part of the 88th Division Upon being relieved the company moved by foot and motor to a rest area near Pratella.

John E Miller
JOHN E. MILLER
1st Lt. 141st Inf.
Commanding.